THE STATE FAIR.

The Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society will meet in Madison this evening and will decide where to hold the fair this year. The Madison people are very anxious to secure the location of the exhibition in that city, and to accomplish this have been actively engaged for a few days past in raising the necessary money by subscription, which will be offered to the Society as a bonus on condition that the fair be held in Madison. How the Executive Committee will regard the claims and demands of Madison, we cannot conjecture. It can be readily proved that the Society have made more clear money at Janesville than at any other place in the State, and for that reason a portion of the Committee are in favor of holding the exhibition in this city. If they have the best interests of the Society in view, past experience dictates that Janesville is the more desirable location of the two.

Taking figures to justify this conclusion, let us see what the two cities have done for the fair. In the years 1864, '67, '68 and '69, the fair was held in Madison. The total gate receipts were $32,540, making the average annual receipts from that source, $8,135. In 1865, '66 and '77, the fair was located in Janesville, and in these years the total gate receipts were $31,335, making the average annual receipts at the gate, $10,328, or $2,192 per year more than at Madison.

Another condition which is quite important, are the grounds. The grounds in Janesville are not equalled by any in the State. The buildings on them are ample in all respects, and the accommodations for stock are unsurpassed. These conditions, to say nothing of the superior location of Janesville, are sufficient inducements to influence the Committee to hold the exhibition of 1878 in this city.

LEO THE THIRTEENTH.

After one of the shortest sessions of the sacred conclave ever known, Joachim Pecci was elected Pope yesterday morning, which made the third ballot taken since the conclave met on Monday evening. The brevity of the session is a universal surprise, as it was generally supposed that it would continue for many days. The report is that Germany instructed Cardinal Hohenlohe to declare that the election of an irreconcilable Pope would oblige the Government to take repressive steps immediately, while on the other hand, a Pontiff with moderate views could speedily end the existing differences. The pretty firm desire which was widespread for a more liberal Pontificate, brought about the early and very satisfactory election of Cardinal Pecci. There were six y-two Cardinals in the conclave, the largest number ever known.

Joachim Pecci, who will assume the title of Leo XIII., will be sixty-eight, years old on the 21 day of March. He was born in Italy in 1810, was made bishop in 1846, and was appointed cardinal on the 15th of March, 1852. It is said that he was created cardinal at the earnest request of the Protestant King of Italy, Leopold I. He is a person of high culture, has a vigorous intellect, and is quite liberal in his theological views. In person he is described as tall and thin, his features having a classical appearance similar to those of Erasmus. While he is aristocratic, having a bearing which would seem to indicate a little austerity, he is simple in manners and very popular. His election to the Pontifical throne, will give very general satisfaction on both sides of the Atlantic. It is believed that the result will conduce to the peace and influence of the Church and to the harmony and welfare of all the Catholic people.

BIENNIAL SESSION.

The Assembly got into a rambling and unprofitable discussion yesterday on the resolution for an amendment to the Constitution providing for biennial sessions of the Legislature. The measure came up as the special order, and occupied most of the morning hour. There did not appear to be a disposition on the part of a majority of those who took part in the debate, to discuss the matter in a candid manner. Amendments and substitutes of a worthless character were offered, and were intended to make the original resolution ridiculous. After several unbecoming speeches, which, however, were short, the matter was postponed until next Tuesday, when the question will come up as a special order.

Within the past ten years, biennial sessions of Legislatures, have vastly grown into popularity. Out of the thirty-eight States in the Union, twenty-eight of them have adopted biennial sessions, and likewise all the territories.

As a measure of economy, the advantage of these sessions, is immense; while the benefit derived from not having the statutes assailed every year, is of vast importance. As a general rule, annual sessions of the Legislature do more harm than good, and should be abolished. The question, however, does not meet with favor in this State, at least among the leading politicians. Madison is a pleasant place to spend a dull winter, and those who get there under a prospect of being returned, are not in favor of the new measure; and those who look forward for Legislative honors, and have no special business that requires them to remain at home during the winter, are also in favor of annual sessions. These influences make it almost impossible to hope for a change in the manner of holding our Legislative sessions.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Special dispatch to the Janesville Gazette. MADISON, Feb. 21.

SENATE.
A bill introduced by the Committee providing for the creation of State Commissioners on Insurance.ASSEMBLY.
W. E. Carter created a sensation by reading from this morning's Democrat an insinuation that he was interested in the bill for publishing Supreme Court reports, which favors Callahan & Co., of Chicago.

He indignantly denied the insinuation, and labored under much emotion.

The Morgan L. Martin claim was debated at length, but the assembly, without action, adjourned.

Both Houses will meet to-morrow morning and immediately adjourn till Monday evening in honor of Washington's birthday.

Madison, Feb. 20.—The Democratic legislative caucus to-night to nominate one candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court was held at the Capitol. Senator Paul, of Milwaukee, was President, with L. Johnson, of Lafayette, and Charles H. Johnson, of Milwaukee, as Secretaries. Eight ballots were had, and on the final ballot, Harlow S. Orton, of Madison, received 26 votes out of 51 cast, and his nomination was then made unanimous amidst great applause. As the news of the nomination transpired the corridors of the Capitol were thronged with an enthusiastic crowd of both parties, cheering for the union ticket of Orton and Taylor. Mr. Orton was formerly Judge of the Ninth Circuit, and is regarded as one of the ablest and most enlightened jurists of the State.

THE STATE BAR.

Special Dispatch to the Janesville Gazette. Madison, Feb. 21.—The State Bar Association met here yesterday afternoon and adjourned this morning. The time was mostly taken up in the discussion of the advisability of the Association nominating a candidate for the Supreme Bench. The debate was excited and acrimonious, and the Association adjourned without action, in the midst of what looked very much like a row. The meeting was attended by 250 lawyers from all portions of the State.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Special dispatch to the Janesville Gazette. Madison, Feb. 21.—H. W. McKinzie, brakeman on a stock train, was killed at Lone Rock, last night, by slipping off a car. The whole of the train passed over him, mauling him fearfully.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS.

Session of the Grand Chapter at Milwaukee—Election of Officers—Other Work. Milwaukee, Feb. 20.—The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons closed their session this afternoon. Oliver Libbey, of Green Bay, was elected High Priest; Fred Ring, Jr., of La Crosse, Deputy; John A. Evans, of Evansville, King; John W. Hauser, of Fond du Lac, Scribe; J. W. Wright, of Madison, Treasurer; J. W. Woodhull, of Milwaukee, Secretary; M. L. Youngs, of Milwaukee, Lecturer; Wm. E. Wright, of Waupaca, Chaplain. The Grand Council was taken within the jurisdiction of the Chapter, and charters granted to Boscobel and Menominee in the Grand Lodge of the Knight's of Honor. In the afternoon session the report of the Recorder shows twenty-two lodges in the State, an increase of 395 members since the previous year.

THE SILVER BILL.

The Prospects of the Silver Bill in the House—Alexander H. Stevens wants the House to Adopt the Senate Amendments.

Washington, Feb. 19.—It was expected that the silver bill would be brought up and disposed of in the House to-day, but it was thought best not to antagonize the Louisiana election case. At one o'clock to-morrow Alexander H. Stephens will move that the Senate amendments be concurred in, and a reasonable time for debate will be allowed. It is very probable that Mr. Stevens' motion will carry, although an attempt will be made to send the bill to a committee to have the amendments stricken off. Ewing, Buckner, and a few others say they will not vote for the bill in its present shape, but the overwhelming majority of silver men are for it as it is.

STEALING STATES.

How the Democrats Defeat the Will of the People—Another Democrat is voted a Seat in the House.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The House devoted the day to consummating the expected Louisiana outrage, and, unopposed, by a solid Democratic vote, a man who had over 30,000 majority on a lawful count, and over 1,000 majority on a so-called Democratic count, who holds a certificate of election from both Governor Kellogg and Governor Nichols. An outrage in this case, scarcely less gross than that involved in seating Patterson from Colorado, was a foregone conclusion. The debate over it aroused but little interest, and the result was received without any special manifestation of feeling or surprise.

Acklin was then admitted without roll-call, and took the seat to which he was thus elected by the Democratic House. It is now time that all the defeated Democratic candidates for Congress in 1876, who did not have the foresight to take steps to contest their victorious opponents' election, consider how frivolous the grounds of such contest should imitate Dogberry and have themselves written down asses. They could have secured from this Congress readily what the people of their districts desired.

PUBLIC LANDS.

Important Measures to be Reported by the Committee on Public Lands—Restoration of 100,000,000 Acres of Land to the Public.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The House Committee on Public Lands to-day agreed to report to the House a bill forfeiting all land grants to the following named railroads, with the recommendation that it be printed, and recommended for consideration of the committee:

The Northern Pacific.
Texas Pacific.
Atlantic and Pacific.
Oregon Central.
Hastings and Dakota.
St. Paul and Pacific, St. Vincent extension and Branch.
Wisconsin Central.
North Wisconsin.
Houghton and Ontonagon.
Detroit and Milwaukee.
Little Rock and Fort Smith.
St. Louis and Iron Mountain.
New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg.
North Louisiana and Texas.
Florida and Gulf Central.
Florida and Georgia.
Alabama and Chattanooga.
Mobile, Girard, Coosa and Tennessee.
Alabama and Florida.
Gulf and Ship Island.

It is estimated that this bill, if passed, would restore to the public domain about 100,000,000 acres.

The committee has also agreed to report favorably upon the following bills: For the restoration to market of certain lands in the Territory of Utah, which provides that the Secretary of the Interior may offer for sale the present Indian reservation in Utah Territory, and to settle the Indians of said Territory in the Santa Valley, and that such reservation be restored to the public domain for disposition as other lands.

To restore all vacant, unappropriated lands, heretofore withdrawn for the Mississippi and Missouri Railroad, in the State of Iowa, situated more than twenty miles from the amended line of route, and that all actual settlers now residing on said lands be permitted to own, not exceeding 160 acres for each head of family or single man over 21 years of age.

The Origin of "Hold the Fort."

MONTGOMERY, Ill., Feb. 11, 1878.

To the Editor of the Janesville Gazette:—In your issue of Saturday, February 9, we find the question answered in regard to the origin of Bliss' song, "Hold the Fort." I would respectfully beg leave to differ with the person who answered that question. I claim that Sherman never sent any such message to General Corse, or any other General, and if you will allow me a little space I will explain. Sherman makes no mention of it himself, and if he had sent such a message it would have been by word among the troops in less than twenty-four hours, as was the case with General Corse's dispatch to Colonel Dayton the day after the battle. Sherman says, "on the 4th of October I signaled from Vining's Station (Chattahoochee river) to Kennesaw, and from Kennesaw to Allatoona, over the heads of the enemy, a message for General Corse to come to my aid, and to the assistance of the garrison at Allatoona," and further, "reaching Kennesaw Mountain about 8 a. m. of Oct. 5, the signal officer reported that since daylight he had failed to obtain any answer to his call for Allatoona, but while I was with him he caught a faint glimpse of the tell tale flag through an embrasure (which would not be more than twelve or fourteen inches wide), and after much time he made out these letters, "C," "R," "S," "E," "H," "E," "R," and translated the message—"Corse is here." It was a source of great relief, for it gave me the first assurance that General Corse had received his orders, and the place was adequately garrisoned.

Sherman remained at or near Kennesaw for two or three days, and on Oct. 6th General Corse sent the following dispatch: ALLATOONA, Ga., Oct. 6, 1864, 3 p. m. Captain L. M. Dayton, Aide-de-camp: "I am short a cheek-bone and an ear, but I am able to whip all I—yet. My losses are very heavy. A force moving from Shiloh to Kingston gives me some anxiety. Tell me where Sherman is." Now if Sherman had signaled to him the day before from the top of Kennesaw, "Hold the fort, for I am coming," why did he ask, "Tell me where Sherman is?"

The rest of the answer is not likely to be satisfactory to the thousands of veterans who may read it. It says: "The message was seen and read by the men at the fort, and as a reply was necessary, General Corse ordered a young officer standing by to send the reply, 'Wave the answer back to Sherman that we will hold the fort.' It was easy to order, but while the rebel bullets were flying fast several members of the signal corps declined to signal, until General Corse was impatient, when the young officer referred to above grasped the flag, mounted the dangerous part, and waved the answer back to Sherman."

If that officer understood the key well enough to send the message after several members of the signal corps refused, why did he not send it when he first received it from his chief? I think I have stood where rebel bullets flew as thick and fast as they did at Allatoona, but never yet saw soldiers who, in such an emergency, would refuse to obey a command, and General Corse was not a man who would permit such disobedience of orders. LEO XIII.

A New Pope Chosen—The Circumstances of the Election—The Announcement.

Rome, Feb. 20.—The smoke of burning ballots having been seen at 12:30 p. m. to-day, the crowd before the Vatican, thinking the ballot was again without result, had almost dispersed, when, at 1:15 p. m., Cardinal Casoni appeared in the Grand Gallery of the Vatican Basilica and announced, in customary form, Cardinal Pecci's succession to the Papacy. The few bystanders cheered most enthusiastically, and a large crowd soon assembled, easily thronging the open space before the Vatican and the approaches thereto. At 4:30 the newly elected Pope, surrounded by all the cardinals, appeared in the inner gallery of the Basilica. The crowd vociferously shouted, "Long live the Pope!" The Holy Father at length made a signal for silence, then intoned the Benedicite, and pronounced a benediction.

After this cheering was renewed, and continued until the Pope withdrew. The circumstances of the election are as follows: At this morning's ballot, Cardinal Pecci received thirty-six votes, which was five short of the requisite two-thirds majority. When the voting was finished and the papers were burned, Cardinal Franchi, and those holding the same views with him, advanced and knelt before Cardinal Pecci. This example being followed by others, Cardinal Pecci's election was accomplished by the method known as "by acclamation."

Count Legur immediately informed the Pope that he purposed to present him with 1,000,000 francs, as the first donation of Peter's pence from the French Episcopate.

As soon as the result of the election became known, the bells in all the churches of Rome were rung, and the diplomats went to the Vatican to congratulate the new Pope.

VEGETINE.

SAFE AND SURE.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS:

In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasion of a friend, I connected to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. The wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give Vegetine my most unqualified endorsement, as being a safe, sure and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Vegetine is the only medicine I use; and as long as I live I never expect to find a better.

Yours truly,

W. H. CLARK, 120 Monterey Street, Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

VEGETINE.

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.

CHARLESTOWN.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir:—This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and think that for Scrofula or Cancerous Humors or Rheumatic Affections it cannot be excelled; and as a blood purifier and spring medicine it is the best I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine.

Mrs. A. A. DINSMORE, 19 Russell St.

VEGETINE.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

Boston, Feb. 13, 1871.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

Dear Sir:—About one year ago I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. Vegetine was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and after using several bottles, was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health.

Respectfully yours,

U. L. PETTINGILL, Firm of S. M. Pettengill & Co., No. 10 State St., Boston.

VEGETINE.

ALL HAVE OBTAINED RELIEF.

SOUTH BROWICK, MA., Jan. 17, 1873.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.

Dear Sir:—I have had dyspepsia in its worst form for the last ten years, and have taken hundreds of dollars' worth of medicines without any relief. In September last I commenced taking Vegetine, since which time my health has steadily improved. My food digests well, and I have gained fifteen pounds in weight. There are several others in this place taking Vegetine, and all have obtained relief.

Yours truly,

THOMAS E. N. MORE, Overseer of Card Room, Portsmouth Co., N.H.

THROAT, LUNGS, HEART, STOMACH, LIVER.

Head, nerves, kidneys, bladder, womb, and blood affections of the urinary organs, gravel, scrofula, rheumatism, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, dyspepsia, etc.

Dr. Price's reputation has been acquired by candid, honest dealing and years of successful practice.

My practice is not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, but builds up; it does not make weak, but makes strong; it does not destroy, but restores; it does not deceive, but gives relief; it does not cure every body, but it cures every one who is willing to be cured. We invite the sick, no matter what the ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for themselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visits made regularly.

VEGETINE.

HER OWN WORDS.

BALTIMORE, MD., Feb. 13, 1877.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir:—Since several years I have got a sore and very painful foot. I had some physicians, but they couldn't cure me. Now I have heard of your Vegetine from a lady who was sick a long time, and became all well from your Vegetine, and I went and bought me one bottle of Vegetine; and after I had used one bottle, the pain left me, and it began to heal, and then I bought one other bottle, and so I take it yet. I thank God for this remedy and yourself, and wishing every sufferer may pay attention to it. It is a blessing for health.

Mrs. C. KIBBE, 638 West Baltimore Street.

SAFE AND SURE.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS:

In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasion of a friend, I connected to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. The wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give Vegetine my most unqualified endorsement, as being a safe, sure and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy.
